

14. Respondent has directed ONE incident of sexual violence against Petitioner, meaning an incident of sexual battery, a lewd or lascivious act committed upon or in the presence of a person younger than 16 years of age, luring or enticing a child, sexual performance by a child, or any other forcible felony wherein a sexual act is committed or attempted, regardless of whether criminal charges based on the incident were filed, reduced, or dismissed by the state attorney. The incident(s) [including date(s) and location(s)] is/are described below:

The respondent is the ex-husband of the petitioner's father's cousin. The petitioner is a minor and her father is filing on her behalf. The petitioner's father alleges that the following events have occurred as described below:

The petitioner's father states that on 01/13/2020 in the morning the petitioner was home alone, the respondent showed and banged hard on the door. The petitioner looked through a window and saw it was the respondent and he was leaving. The petitioner was scared, she called her father and he dialed 911. Miami Dade PD arrived and spoke to the petitioner; no case number is available at this time.

The petitioner's father states that in December of 2019 the respondent reached out to a teenage friend of the petitioner asking about the petitioner. The petitioner's friend asked the petitioner what she should respond and the petitioner said, "Don't respond he's a bad man!"

The petitioner's father states that in November of 2019 Hollywood Police picked up the petitioner's phone that had evidence of nude pictures and inappropriate messages that the respondent had sent to the petitioner. The petitioner's parents reported the incidents to the police on October 5, 2019.

The petitioner's father states that in late July of 2019 he and his wife arrived home from work to find the petitioner in the bathroom screaming at the respondent who had gone into the bathroom with his ex-wife to see if the petitioner knew how to properly shower. The petitioner was yelling, "Get Out, Get Out!"

The petitioner's father states that in June of 2019 the family was taking a trip to Cuba, at the airport the petitioner asked her mother if it was ok to kiss the respondent on the lips. The petitioner told her mother that the respondent had asked for one as he was going to give her traveling money. The petitioner's mother told the petitioner it was not ok. The petitioner's father further states that upon arrival in Cuba the petitioner confided in her older sisters that the respondent had been acting inappropriately with her since 2018. The petitioner also told her sisters that the respondent had forced her to watch pornography. The petitioner's father states that when they returned from Cuba and made arrangement for someone else to help care for the petitioner the respondent became enraged.

The petitioner's father states that they as a family were living with the petitioner's father's cousin and the respondent was always in and out of that house. The petitioner's father states that there were multiple occasions where the respondent touched the petitioner in her private areas and the petitioner was terrified to tell her parents as the petitioner's father's cousin told her if you tell you will all be living on the street. The petitioner's father states that the respondent has created social media pages on Facebook and Instagram dedicated to the petitioner with hundreds of pictures the respondent has taken of the petitioner without anyone's consent. The petitioner's father further states that the respondent has made sexual comments referring to the petitioner on those pages as well. The petitioner's father states that the petitioner is afraid of the respondent and they are seeking the intervention of the courts to keep the respondent away from the petitioner and from committing further acts of violence.
